Consulting - Delivery Models for In-House

In-house legal teams are often struggling to deal with an increasing workload alongside budgetary constraints.

Kalexius provides consulting to in-house legal leaders in order that:-

> Tactical lower value/risk work is identified along with associated volumes

Different options for the delivery of legal services to the business are appraised

In-house lawyers are enabled to focus on business aligned strategic matters

Case study – vendor contract negotiation outsourcing

REDUCING COST WHILE IMPROVING QUALITY

OPPORTUNITY

An agro-food company needed to replace their vendor contract negotiation team that was being dismantled due to a voluntary redundancy scheme.

Kalexius set up a 3-FTE team with a mix of on-shore senior lawyers and offshore junior lawyers.

OUTCOME

Leveraging offshore resources and more junior lawyers led to a 30/40 % cost savings for the client.

()

The new team felt motivated and more focused; they managed to improve both quality and turnaround times compared to previous in-house teams.

Model for Volume Work

FRONTDOOR

Entry point for the business to request legal support

TRIAGE

Digital process for obtaining details of the matter (drives workflow and document automation)

ALLOCATION

Outsourcer allocates work to in-house team or outsourced team or declines request

COMPLETION

Outsourcer undertakes daily tasks in most efficient manner using technology and agreed playbooks

REPORTING

Outsourcer provides tracking and reporting around the service (drives continuous improvement)

OUTCOMES

Work is managed in a consistent way with a transparent risk profile and a lower cost of service

Case study – corporate secretarial

REDUCING COST WHILE IMPROVING QUALITY

OPPORTUNITY

An international mining company needed a partner to manage their legal entities in Africa year on year.

Kalexius allocated a team of experts both onshore and offshore to deliver a co-ordinated service across all countries in scope.

OUTCOME

Leveraging Kalexius offshore resources, local law database and the Kalexius network of local partner firms led to a 30% cost saving for the client.

Ø 🗠

The Kalexius Team undertook a health check of all entities to ensure all were compliant. Kalexius worked with the Client's existing tool such that the client had full visibility of progress and ownership of output.

Case study – legal research

REDUCING COST WHILE IMPROVING QUALITY

OPPORTUNITY

A Fortune 500 company had a specific requirement to conduct legal research on an ongoing global basis. The Client wished to increase the quality and output from the in-house team.

Kalexius initially audited the in-house team to provide improvement recommendations. The Client made the decision to outsource the inhouse team to Kalexius.

OUTCOME

With a more efficient process design, the new service delivered a 20% cost saving for the client.

Ø 🗠

Quality improved and turnaround times decreased. More was able to be done with the same cost base which had a positive effect on the Client's margins.
